SCOUT ME IN™

General Interest Courses

Cooking for Special Dietary Needs

The increased prevalence of scouts and scouters with special dietary needs requires that we carefully consider how we cook in groups. This applies to youth members working in patrols, adult leaders preparing snacks and meals for cub scouts, and pretty much anybody who is planning to feed a large group of people. What do you need to know? How do you determine the dietary needs of participants? How do you create an environment where everybody is included, while also getting nourishing meals they can trust? This class will help you navigate these challenges!

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 30

Dutch Oven Cooking: Basic

Learn the basics required to cook with a Dutch oven. Get recipes, resources and even sample some cooking.

Offered five times: Sessions 1, 2, 3, 5, 6

Maximum Participants: 16

Additional Fee: $4.00

Dutch Oven Cooking: Advanced

You've mastered chili and cornbread. Your peach cobbler is cooked, not burned. If you're ready for more complex recipes, this is the class for you.

Offered four times: Sessions 1, 2, 4, 5

Maximum Participants: 12

Additional Fee: $4.00

Effective Use of Tentaroo

Offered once: Session 2

Maximum Participants: 36

So you were an LDS Scout / Scouter - NOW What?

It is true the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints is moving away from scouting as the official youth program, but YOU (and the youth in your community) can still continue to be fully involved in scouting! We want you to continue on this journey with us. How do you find a Pack, Troop, and/or Crew in your area to join? How can you start a new Pack, Troop, and/or Crew specifically for the youth and families in your Ward? How does the "community" program differ from the program that the Church has run for so many years? This class will have all the answers for you!

Offered once: Session 1

Maximum Participants: 22

Unit Finance 101

Learn national recommendations and local best practices for setting up a unit account and maintaining good financial records. We'll cover how to set up an account, basic recordkeeping, whether or not you should have two signers, who should receive the financial statements, how often they should be shared with the unit, and other good info on keeping records easy to maintain and avoiding temptation for fraud.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 30

Paddling - Water Activities

Explore all the possibilities of water activities for your unit. Discussion will include preparing both Scouts and leaders for a water outing, transporting gear, places to go, typical daily distance, and other helpful tips and resources.

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 30

Patrol Games

Scouting is a game with a purpose. Games are important. This session will discuss the different kinds of games and how they can be used in developing Scoutcraft skills and leadership.

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 30

Program Planning for Troops

What should we do, where should we go, how do we do it? Learn how to plan a fantastic program for your Troop, and how to keep those new scouts engaged and excited about scouting!

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 72

OA: How to ACTIVATE Your Older Scouts

Once Scouts reach mid-teens, many lose interest, miss meetings, and eventually drop out. This class will suggest ways to re-connect your older Scouts with scouting, such as through involvement with the Order of the Arrow, Summer Camp staffing opportunities, Venturing and Sea Scouts, and BSA High-Adventure Bases.

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 22

Scouting 101: I'm a Troop Leader! Now What?

Are you new to BSA programs? Want to get up-to-speed quickly on just what the BSA is, what Scouts BSA is all about, and why you should be a part of this fantastic program? This is the place to start!

Offered once: Session 1

Maximum Participants: 30

Scout-Led Backpacking

Three local backpacking trip plans will be presented, detailing how to lead a backpacking trip that accommodates both young and older scouts.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 72

Scouts BSA Courses

Scoutmaster Position-Specific Training - Classroom (S24)

This is the indoor portion of the training that is required for a scoutmaster to be fully trained. This course is 4 sessions long and will break for lunch. You do not need to sign up for a lunch.

Offered once: Sessions 1 - 4

Maximum Participants: 36

Shooting Sports

Learn how to safely provide and promote shooting sports/projectile launching devices at unit activities and district events. Learn who in the Council must approve all ranges and SOP's, and what trainings are required.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 36

The National Outdoor Award

When a Scout excels in outdoor participation, there are awards to show for it! This program, conceived by the BSA's National Camping Task Force, includes a series of six badges designed to recognize a Scout who has exemplary knowledge and experience in performing high-level outdoor activities.

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 36

The Patrol Method

"The patrol system is not one method... It is the only method." This class will discuss how youth leaders can run their troop through the Patrol Leaders Council. Gain insight into how successful troops use the patrol method to help each Scout develop leadership abilities.

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 36

The Scout-Run Troop

What does it mean to be a Scout-led troop? Come learn what a Scout-led troop looks like, how it operates, and what steps to take to move your Troop towards that goal.

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 28

The Teen Brain and Scouting

Many scouts, both with and without special needs, struggle with skills needed to plan, organize and self-regulate. While these are skills that can develop with age, Scouting is one of the few places that actually teaches these skills. We will cover and discuss a variety of strategies to support Scouts developing these important life skills.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 36

Who's in Charge Here? The Patrol Leaders Council!

Is your Patrol Leaders Council sputtering? Learn the skills, resources, and techniques to appropriately mentor your Troop's top leaders. Discover the Scoutmaster's role in the meetings, and how to help your Troop's Senior Patrol Leader prepare and reflect. This presentation is sure to give you the strategies you need to make your Patrol Leaders Council more effective, efficient, and impactful.

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 36

Winter and Cold Weather Camping with Scouts

What does it take to plan a successful winter camping experience with your scouts? Well, "stay inside" is NOT the answer! Learn all about what will you need for gear, where should you go, and what should you be careful about when camping in the winter.

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 36

Scouts BSA Courses

Youth Leadership Training (NYLT, NAYLE)

How do you cover the gamut of Youth Leadership in a youth-lead scouting organization? We will cover Introduction to Leadership Skills, National Youth Leadership Training, and NAYLE (offered at high adventure camps). Participants will leave understanding the resources available and the role of the Troop or Crew, Council, and National in presenting opportunities for youth leadership training.

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 28

Scouts BSA Advancement

Scouts BSA / Venturer STEM Program: The Nova/SuperNova Award Program

The BSA STEM initiative is designed to bring a Scouting focus to skills that are relevant and needed in our competitive world. It provides opportunities for youth to develop enhanced interest in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics and recognize youth STEM achievement. Similar to the Cub Scout STEM Program; modules build on STEM Merit Badges and explore basic principles of STEM. SuperNova awards are set to challenge the scout. Come learn the basics of these awards!

Offered once: Session 1

Maximum Participants: 50

Counseling Merit Badges / Merit Badge Counselor Training

Every merit badge counselor, however skilled in the topic, needs some training. There IS a right way to counsel and interact with Scouts, leaders, parents. Take this course to be trained – and to learn what you need in order to train the adults counseling in your unit. (Youth Protection Training is required for ALL Merit Badge Counselors).

Offered once: Session 2

Maximum Participants: 36

Duty to God Requirements and Religious Emblems

Clarify the BSA requirements regarding “Duty to God” in all ranks and begin gathering ideas and resources to help your Scouts work through them. Learn about the Religious Emblem program in which Scouts and Scouters may participate.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 36

Eagle Mentor/ Eagle Service Project Coach

The Eagle Scout Mentor and Service Project Coach presentation is targeted for unit leaders (SM, ASM, Venturing Crew Advisor) and any unit committee member wishing to work with Scouts through the trail to Eagle and provide project support. District Advancement volunteers are also encouraged to attend. The Eagle Mentor and Project Coach serve two distinct separate roles. A lot to cover in this time frame; this presentation will explain the differences and qualifications needed to serve in these capacities and how they help your Scouts succeed.

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 36

Eagle Service Projects

What makes a good service project for Eagle rank? Learn how to guide Scouts in selecting, planning and carrying out a good project – including the paperwork and Council procedures.

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 36

Effective Troop/Unit Advancement

Scouts complete HUNDREDS of requirements on their way to Eagle. Incorporating them into the overall program, keeping track of them for each Scout, conducting timely, objective and encouraging boards of review, and presenting awards and rank advancement is a big job! The Unit Advancement Committee helps ensure every Scout can live his/her dream of being an Eagle!

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 36

Scouts BSA Advancement

How to be an Amazing Troop Advancement Chair

Learn the job duties of a Troop Advancement Chair, with tips and tricks on how to go from being good to amazing. Topics include: tracking, rank ceremonies, program, awards, planning, and more.

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 36

How Parents Can Help Their Scout with Advancement

"It is not just patches..." is important for parents to understand. The aims and purposes of the Scouts BSA advancement program lend themselves to many do's and don'ts for parents that are very different than the Cub Scout program. Learn how to help your troop's parents support their scouts up the "trail" without going out of bounds.

Offered once: Session 3

Maximum Participants: 28

Scoutbook: Advanced Topics

Are you comfortable using Scoutbook, but still want to learn the really cool tricks and features? Do you have really specific questions about specific use-cases? Trying to figure out how to get the most out of Scoutbook? This class is for you!

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 24

Scoutbook: An Intro for Troop Leaders

Simplify advancement tracking and unit communications with the free Scoutbook tool. Learn the basics of signing off completed requirements, purchasing awards, and auto-syncing with council records. Class will also cover several administrative capabilities of Scoutbook like camping logs, auto-sync calendars, individual finance accounts and more. Scoutbook has something for everyone!

Offered once: Session 4

Maximum Participants: 24

Merit Badge Counselor Management / Scout Community

This is the official Merit Badge Counselor system for the Cascade Pacific Council. Troops learn how to (1) help your counselors get properly registered and approved for each badge, (2) search the district or your troop for a counselor for a specific badge, (3) run different troop reports. DISTRICTS learn (1) processing and approving counselors, (2) attendance tracking for trainings and meetings, (3) Fast ScoutNET lookups for verification of registrations and (4) easy Internet Advancement/Scoutbook processor searches and Unit ID #s.

Offered once: Session 2

Maximum Participants: 24

Milestones to Eagle

Let's take a look at what each of the distinct steps are to get from joining a Scouts BSA Troop to the rank of Eagle. How long does it take? What are the hardest requirements? What resources are available to help navigate this path? Learn all of these things here!

Offered once: Session 5

Maximum Participants: 36

Trail to Eagle (Star, Life, Eagle)

Star, Life, and then Eagle – the emphasis changes from "skills" to service, merit badges, and leadership. Gain an understanding of the requirements and timelines that are critical to achieve these ranks.

Offered once: Session 6

Maximum Participants: 36

Trail to First Class

First Class rank is the goal for every Scout their first year. Review the requirements in detail, along with finding valuable insight into the bumps and obstacles that might be faced along the way. The basic Scouting skills learned in getting to First Class are essential for a Scout's climb to Eagle!

Offered once: Session 1

Maximum Participants: 36

Scouts BSA Advancement

Troop/Unit Boards of Review

Every rank in Scouts BSA requires a Board of Review for the Scout to progress. Come learn the who, what, when, where, and why of boards of review and how they evolve as the Scout moves up the ranks.

COLLEGE OF YOUTH LEADERSHIP

While you attend University of Scouting, bring your Troop-aged Scout youth to the College of Youth Leadership!

The College of Youth Leadership (CYL) is a leadership training put on by Wauna La-Mon'tay Lodge. CYL is open to any Troop-aged Scout who wish to attend! CYL isn't just for experienced scouts – any scout, regardless of leadership experience or ability is welcome! At CYL, leadership skills are taught in a hands-on environment through games and interactive classes. For more information visit: www.cpcbsa.org/cyl

CYL Offers Three Tracks

Introductory Track

Best for newer scouts ages 11-13 or 14-15-year-olds with no leadership experience. This track puts an emphasis on basic leadership. Scouts will learn the required material to best lead a patrol. Skills learned include how to lead small groups, team building, goal setting, and other essential leadership knowledge.

Advanced Scout Track

Designed for 14-16-year-olds. This track is designed to empower scouts to become a Senior Patrol Leader. Advanced leadership skills are used in this course to improve upon previous experience and training. Scouts will find this track utilizes skills that they already have and teach them what they don't know so that they will be the best leader they can be.

Order of the Arrow Track

The Order of the Arrow Track is open only to those Scouts that are currently Lodge members. This program will focus more on a wide variety of leadership abilities, as opposed to studying a few core ideas. This program will help those who go through it to better lead in their fellow scouts and in other aspects of scouting. All Order of the Arrow members are welcome in this program.

We look forward to seeing you November 2nd!
