

COLLEGE OF YOUTH LEADERSHIP

The College of Youth Leadership (CYL) is a one day youth taught conference to bring Scouts interested in improving their leadership skill together.

CYL is held as three tracks: Intro, Advanced, and a session for the members of the Order of the Arrow. Participants will sign up for one track based on their interests and level of Scouting.

OA Membership is NOT required to attend this event

BASIC

This track puts an emphasis on basic leadership. Scouts will learn the required skills to best lead a patrol. This track is best for newer scouts who have some experience in the program and are seeking to learn leadership skills to support small team leadership

ADVANCED

This track is designed to develop skills for Senior Patrol leaders (SPL) or future SPLs. The skills learned in the advanced track will build off of previous knowledge and will enhance the connections between an SPL and their troop.

OA TRACK

This track is designed for those Arrowmen who want to improve their overall leadership. Attendees will learn about the five practices of exemplary leadership and further strengthen their own leadership abilities.
